

Please do not weaken our Indiana Do Not Call List. It is important to the privacy of our families. Just because we do business with a bank or other establishment does not mean that we want our home life to be disrupted with intruding phone calls. If we need to talk to them we know how to contact them. Our Privacy is Priceless to Indiana families. Thank you for reading this comment and please consider our families in this important issue.